The 8-night Costa Rica Caribbean Experience for Young Jewish Professionals next spring (the week of Memorial Day, 2012) offers a diverse adventure that combines the Caribbean Highlands of Costa Rica – with its breathtaking tropical beaches. It begins (for those that observe Shabbat or that choose to arrive a day early) by sampling some of the color that San Jose, the nation’s vibrant capital has to offer, as well as a Shabbat visit to its small but thriving Jewish community; it continues with a whitewater rafting run down to the Caribbean Lowlands, with their tropical beaches, unique flora and fauna, active nightlife, and indigenous culture; continues with a visit to Tortuguero National Park, with its majestic jungle canals and the late-night ritual of endangered turtle nesting on its beach; and it ends in the highlands, with their lush mountainous rainforest, waterfalls, freshwater pools and serenity - spending Shabbat while based at a cool Jewish owned eco-farm on the slopes of Volcan Turrialba.

This complete tour package provides an exciting adventure-experience brimming with activities (including chill time), all in a short but long week, and all in the beautiful and peaceful paradise called Costa Rica. It offers a mosaic for all your senses, focusing on the contrast between the highlands and the lowlands-coast. So come and spend an amazing week in the Costa Rican Caribbean!

We take the environment seriously, and plan our trips in accordance with the guidelines of eco-tourism: minimizing environmental damage through low impact travel, supporting local environmental projects and indigenous communities, and learning about the culture and natural environment of the places visited.

As we say in Costa Rica, Pura Vida!

Saturday, May 26th:

For those of you that landed on Friday today offers you a few options: If you choose, you can return to the synagogue for morning services, followed by a communal lunch with the congregation. During the afternoon, you will be able to explore San Jose - you will be staying about a mile west of downtown, and it should be a nice Shabbat walk to some of the main attractions, such as the Plaza De La Cultura, the

The Poas Volcano Crater Lake

National Theater and the National Museum.

On the hand, you might wish to head out of town on a short daytrip to the beautiful Poás Volcano, just north of town. The Poas Volcano, a National Park, reaches to the height of 2,300 meters above sea level. It is an active volcano with a beautiful blue crater lake at its summit, located amidst alpine cloud forest.

If you are arriving today, you will be greeted at the San Jose Jaun Santamaria International Airport (SJO) and brought back to the hotel, where you will be able to rest up from your trip and join the rest of the group in exploring downtown San Jose and for dinner.

This evening, with the entire group present, we will all go out for dinner in downtown San Jose, and check out the Latino vibe of the local nightlife.

Sunday, May 27th:

Today we will be picked up early in the morning to go on a day long whitewater rafting adventure down the Pacuare River, known as one of the top five rafting rivers in the world for its scenery and rapids (Class III-IV). We will be traveling to the Caribbean Highlands, where the trip begins – the run is 32 km long, taking 3-1/2 to 5 hours - depending on water level.

Tour participants rafting on the Pacuare River – what an experience!

A big breakfast and hearty lunch will be served at the company's operation center before and after the trip. When we are done, it's time to be drive to Puerto Viejo on the Caribbean Coast.

Puerto Viejo is one of the most happening places in Costa Rica - a place where surfers, travelers, backpackers and the counter-culture crowd blend with the local Latino, Afro-Caribbean and Bribri indigenous cultures, with its pristine coastline acting as a backdrop. Find more information about the town here: www.puertoviejoweb.com.

In Puerto Viejo, you will be staying in a comfortable mid-level hotel, such as the elegant Banana Azul, or the Shawandha.

After checking in to our hotel, we will be heading out to eat dinner at one of the many fine restaurants Puerto Viejo has to offer. Later, we can enjoy live Reggae music with mojitos, daiquiris or fresh Pina Colada!

Accommodation: Banana Azul or Shawandha

Monday, May 28th:

Good morning!

In the open time this morning there will be some options suggested, but really, it is up to you to decide. Rent bicycles and tour the beaches, take a surfing lesson, go to the local butterfly or botanical gardens, visit a local jungle animal rescue center, or just spend the morning on the beach.

Cruiser bikes are one of the best ways to get around the Caribbean (Highly recommended)! Cruise down the road from Puerto Viejo towards Manzanillo, checking out the different beaches and towns along the way. Starting at $4 a day, there are many bike rental shops around town.

Head south to visit the highly recommended Jaguar Rescue Center, a unique animal rescue center, where you will learn about (and hold!) some of the amazing animals (including monkeys) that call this area home. Tours of the center start only at 9:30 and at 11:30 am – (the later tour will conflict with the zipline adventure).

Some other morning options:

- Botanical Gardens: A short walk from the center of Puerto Viejo to the black beach.
- Surfing Lessons on the coast that is an international Mecca for surfers!

We will be meeting back at the hotel in the early afternoon, and take a short ride up the mountains to the Indigenous BriBri Tribal Area. There we will learn about the history of the native peoples of Costa Rica, medicinal plants used by the BriBri, as well as the history and production of chocolate. Yes, some of the best organic chocolate one can ever taste will be sampled!

Traditional chocolate making at the BriBri reservation

Upon our return to Puerto Viejo, we will enjoy a late afternoon/sunset swim along the magnificent Punta Uva beach south of town- thought by many as the most beautiful beach in Costa Rica!

After our swim it is time to learn to prepare our dinner – Caribbean style!

We will take a Caribbean cooking lesson (kosher style – i.e. fish and veggies).

Using fruits and veggies typical to Coastal Talamanca, you'll learn to cook in the traditional Caribbean way, such as patacones, batidos, or fish in Caribbean sauce, etc.

This is also an opportunity to spend some time with one of the matriarchs from the local community. Here the Afro-Caribbean folks speak what some call “Patios” some call a local dialect of English. After this we will all sit down to eat a unique and memorable dinner!

Punta Uva Beach

At night we are free to explore the town– all while taking in the special and laid back ambiance of Puerto Viejo. Later, we may hit one of the bars, clubs, or live music venues that dot the town...

Accommodation: Banana Azul or Shawandha

Tuesday, May 29th:

The early wake up this morning will take us on a half day hike in the amazing Gandoca Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge – one of the best trips for wildlife viewing in all of Costa Rica. The hike will take us on some of the Refuge's inner trails, or to explore the bluffs and tiny hidden beaches along the coast. It will include a walk through the primary rainforest to encounter many of its colorful inhabitants and exquisite bird watching with the local naturalist, Tino. This tour is provided by ATEC, a local nonprofit that helps promote culturally and ecologically sound tourism and small-scale, locally owned and responsible businesses in the area.

Hiking the Gandoca-Manzanillo Wildlife Refuge

After the walk we can lunch at Maxi's Restaurant, considered by many to be the best seafood restaurant in the Caribbean (with many veggie friendly options!). Fresh food is served here Caribbean style with a modern twist.

After lunch, we will stay to enjoy the breathtaking and tranquil beaches of Manzanillo (to soothe our bodies from all that hiking!), and stay there until the sunset.

For those interested, snorkeling is available in some of the best tropical reefs Costa Rica has to offer – with the local Aquamor Marine Adventure Center.

After sunset we will return to Puerto Viejo stopping on our way back at the Israeli owned Pita Bonita restaurant, serving some of the best Hummus outside of the Holy Land!

Accommodation: Banana Azul or Shawandha

Wednesday, May 30th:

Zip Line Adventure: This morning we will head out on an amazing Jungle Canopy Tour, where we will literally fly through the forest by zipline - a really memorable experience!

After lunch we will say farewell to Puerto Viejo and take a ride up the coast to the port of Limon, where we take a boat ride up the inner coastal canal, bringing us to the tiny island village of Tortuguero. In Tortuguero we will check into to the Evergreen Lodge, with its comfortable rooms surrounded by lush vegetation- and enjoy a welcome cocktail!

Tour participants on the Jungle Canopy Tour

This evening you will have free time to chill in the hotel, and enjoy the jungle sounds or a swim in the pool – as well as a buffet dinner provided by the hotel.

Accommodation: Evergreen lodge

The Evergreen Lodge, Tortuguero

The Tortuguero National Park is one of the most varied parks in Costa Rica. It boasts high rainforests, marshy lands, long stretches of beach, and wide open canals perfect for crocodile spotting. It is also one of the most important breeding grounds for the Green Sea Turtle. The wildlife here is rich and diverse with unusually large populations of monkeys, birds, and fish.

The beaches around Tortuguero are key nesting sites for many of the world's most endangered species of sea turtles. The small village, which can be reached only by boat or airplane, is sustained in large part by eco-tourism.

Thursday, May 31st:

Today starts early - 5:30am!

This is a day of jungle exploration in the Tortuguero National Park!

Early Morning Boat Tour: In the early hours of the morning you will be woken up by a loud noise. What you will hear is not a trumpet or a big bell, but a natural alarm called the Howler Monkey! Drink some coffee and get ready for a very early boat ride. This is the best time to find wildlife along the majestic canals while admiring the beauty that is the Tortuguero National Park. Among the common species of fauna to be found are the howler, white-faced Capuchon and Spider monkeys; crocodiles; iguanas; and the blue heron, aningas, kingfishers and other type of birds. If we look closely, we may see a manatee or the Gaspar fish (considered a living fossil).

Tortuguero national park

Mid-morning walk: A breakfast buffet will be served upon our return. We will briefly rest before heading up Tortuguero Hill on a guided walk.

Tortuguero Hill is the highest point on the Caribbean side of the country (approximately 119 meters). It is located 10 minutes from the main village just outside a small community called San Francisco. On a clear day a view of Tortuguero and the surrounding areas captures you.

Tortuguero village: Once again a meal (lunch) and a period of repose will be awaiting us on the return from our walk. In the afternoon, we will visit the local village. There is no guided activity here, only a chance to interact, shop, and experience this secluded Tico community. During this time you can also head to the beach and enjoy the Caribbean sands. It is an unguarded beach with strong waves, so swimming is not recommended.

Relax in the lodge: For the third time today, a meal and relaxation await our return at the lodge. Tonight we can take advantage of all amenities of the resort.

Late night (option): Tonight you will have the option of taking a late night tour, to see the female green or Leatherback turtles, which come during this season to lay their eggs on the picturesque coast. This tour is not included in the package, and will cost extra (about $20 pp).

Accommodation: Evergreen lodge

Friday, June 1st:

This morning, after breakfast, we will take a boat ride through the landscape the National Park to the village of Pavao, where our driver will take us up into the Caribbean Highlands, passing through the scenery of banana plantations on the way.

For our final weekend we will head to the countryside paradise on the slopes of the Turrialba volcano - Finca Rio Perla (Farm of the Pearl River) - a sprawling 240 acres, including many acres of untouched rainforest. This is where we will spend Shabbat, and our last two nights in Costa Rica. Our welcome to the farm will begin with a check-in and some refreshments, followed by a short orientation walk, where we will get to meet our hosting Tico family, Efrain & Vivian.

Finca Rio Perla

High on the Caribbean Highlands of Costa Rica, with elevations ranging from about 1,000 to 2,250 feet (350 to 750 meters), this beautiful eco-farm is blessed with moderate temperatures, great breezes, amazing views, and a relative lack of insects (like mosquitoes).

This farm is a special place. It is home to untouched rainforest on the slopes of Volcan Turrialba, breathtaking waterfalls, refreshing natural pools and streams, and a view that goes on for miles and miles, out to the Caribbean coast. These protected rainforest land on the farm's property are accessible to visitors to enjoy during their stay. Horses, a macadamia grove, and hammocks are available to further enhance this natural experience.

Roey, a tour participant, and Vivian, the farm manager, show off some of the bounty of the organic garden on Finca Rio-Perla: eggs, lettuce and yucca!

Finca Rio Perla is also a working farm, where guests can experience the authentic Costa Rican countryside. A herd of dairy of cows, sheep, free-range hens, tilapia fishponds, organic vegetable gardens, and a grand macadamia plantation each provide ingredients that go straight to the kitchen. Guests can put food on their plates by collecting eggs, milking cows, gardening, nut picking, and fishing. Guests can also help churn cheese and ice cream from the fresh milk.

The farm offers traditional Tico (Costa Rican) food that is primarily vegetarian. Dairy, eggs and fish are harvested onsite and become additional meal ingredients. The kitchen makes all attempts to use farm-grown, locally produced, and/or organic products.

A variety of rooms for overnight lodging are available. They are rustic but comfortable.

*Delicious veggie breakfast on Finca Rio Perla
(pic by Matt Miller)*

The stay at Finca Rio Perla is hosted by Efrain, Vivian, and Manuel, a Tico family, who have created a unique opportunity to explore, experience, and connect with the authentic Costa Rica. This is also a great opportunity to learn and/or practice Spanish and a great opportunity to learn Tico cooking.

Finca Rio Perla is accessible and connected, yet remote and independent. It is located about 60 miles (100 km) east of San Jose and about 40 miles (60km) west of Limon. The farm is connected to the municipal water supplier, electrical grid, and telephone and internet systems.

The farm's working philosophy is based on both traditional practices and new technologies to maintain and nurture the environment. The farm is striving toward organic and natural production and processing practices; using new technologies. It calls its balanced and eclectic approach to sustainable living: Agro-Eco Pragmatism.

The farm itself is owned by Dr. Paul Siegel, who has been a Rural Development Consultant with the World Bank for more than 20 years working in Latin America and the Caribbean, Africa, Asia, Middle East, and Europe. He was also a professor in the USA (University of Tennessee) and Israel (Tel-Hai College in the Upper Galilee, and the Arava Institute for Environmental Studies at Kibbutz Ketura). Paul's vision for the farm is one of creating a thriving ecological community that will abide to sustainable guidelines, and also incorporate Jewish environmental themes.

Chilling on the deck of the main house (Posada) of Finca Rio-Perla

Our orientation tour will be followed by a fresh home-cooked veggie lunch, after which it is time to saddle up! From the stables you will leave on a horseback ride towards the upper area of the farm. You will leave the horses near the macadamia processing shed, take a tour of the macadamia plantation, taste some fresh sugarcane, and hike down to the big waterfall (over 100 ft!). For nearly two hours you will take a swim in the cool water at the fall base and enjoy the rainforest around you. you can climb a small waterfall and go swimming right under the big one - an amazing experience! On the way back you will seek out some pipa's (water filled coconuts) to open for a refreshing drink.

Planting a tree on the farm

In the afternoon, before Shabbat, we will have time to do as many of the following as each of us chooses:

Tilapia fishing in the farm's fishponds (which will be used for dinner); exploring the farm grounds on your own; stroll to the nearby small waterfalls; play Frisbee; pass a soccer ball, or feel the serenity while lounging on the hammocks.

After our long day, we will sit down for our festive Shabbat meal – a traditional Tico vegetarian dinner, including the tilapia we fished as well as freshly baked challa and some local wine. Dinner will be followed by a free evening to read, drink, play games and fall asleep to the sounds of the jungle around us.
